

Winkleigh Morris Dancers Visit Jacobstow School

Morris Dancing may not be everyone's cup of tea but the children at Jacobstow primary loved it when the Winkleigh Morris Dancers visited our school. We were treated to a whole school display with some intricate footwork and some even more intricate sword patterns, with everyone tying themselves up in splendid knots!

And then, it was the turn of the children. They were thoroughly engaged and had lots of fun and by the end of their workshop were up to some intricate moves of their own, even if they were a bit 'freestyle'.

Thank you to the Morris Dancers for their visit and to the team at Sound Waves South West who organised it. A real treat and lots of fun.
